

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

ASAP "A Summer Art Program"

Shots of Creativity

MONDAY
July 19

Mono Prints
Will Caldwell

TUESDAY
July 20

Garden Chimes
Marjolaine Renfro

WEDNESDAY
July 21

Oval Gratin Dishes
Susan Ward

THURSDAY
July 22

Blank Cards
Marjolaine Renfro

FRIDAY
July 23

Garden Chimes II
Marjolaine Renfro

Non-Profit
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit No. 171
Ketchum, ID

5 - 7 p.m.
Adults over 18

TUITION:
Single Workshop $25
$20 for members

All workshops: $110
$100 for members

• SUPPLY LIST OR SUPPLY FEE REQUIRED

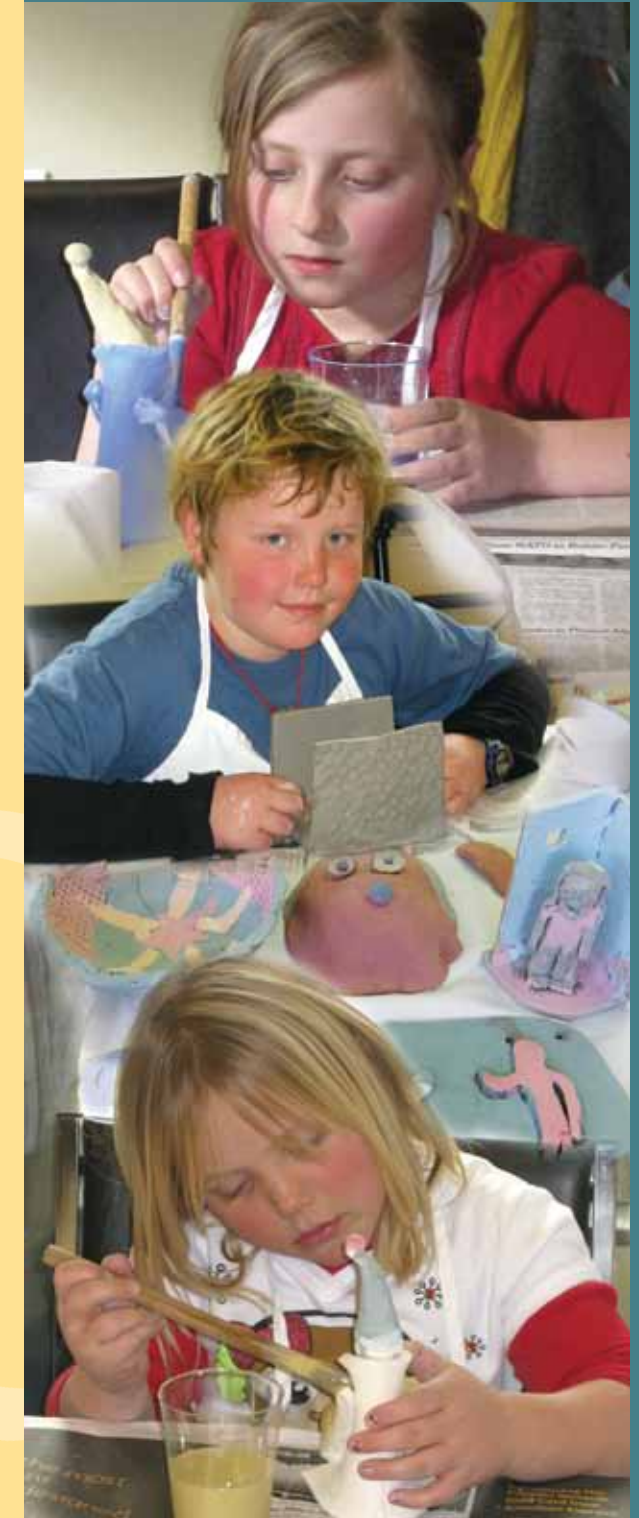

Boulder
Mountain
Clayworks

P.O. Box 3725 • 471 E. 10th St. #B6
Ketchum, ID 83340
email: bouldermtnclay@yahoo.com
www.bouldermtnclay.com
Tel: 208.726.4484 • Fax: 208.726.7183

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

ART CLASSES

BOULDER MOUNTAIN

C
L
A
Y
W
O
R
K
S

2
0
1
0

GUEST ARTIST SERIES

CLAY SURFACES: Having one's way with slips on greenware.

Taught by guest artist Jullia Galloway

"It is the responsive nature of clay that continues to interest me...it responds to your touch, then you respond to it."

This is a "hands on" weekend workshop with a focus on the surface of the just thrown pot. Julia will guide the participants in reading their pots and spending more time on enriching the surface lives of their vessels.

- Aug 13 noon to 5pm Introduction
6pm Slide presentation, wine & cheese party
- Aug 14 9am to 5pm Demonstration and "Hands on"
6pm Pot Luck Dinner
- Aug 15 9am to noon Finish up and critique

Tuition: $250/$225 for members

TREASURE BOXES: Hand building for all skill levels

Taught by Marjolaine Renfro

Small boxes for big ideas. Marjolaine, a local clay artist, has invested these boxes with her dreams and history. You can do the same.

July 30 5 to 7pm
Introduction, slides, wine and cheese

July 31 9am to 5pm
Demo and "hands on" activity

Aug 1 9am to noon
Finish up and critique

Tuition: $250/$225 members

College credit available to Guest Artist participants.

GUEST ARTIST SERIES

SCARVES: Design, Dye and Print

Taught by Deb Gelet

You will learn to craft printing blocks from a variety of materials, dye cloth in the microwave and design a great silk scarf. A $20 materials fee will be charged.

July 20 10am to 5pm
All day "hands on" workshop
Tuition: $125/100 for members

FAMILY CLAY AFTERNOONS

Wizards

Saturday, July 24 • 10am to noon or 2 to 4pm

Popcorn Bowls

Saturday, July 31 • 10am - noon or 2 to 4pm

Fun for the family, mom, dad, grandparents. Create something wonderful out of clay with your child.

Tuition: $40 for one adult and one child
Additional children or adults, $10

YOUTH CLAY CAMPS

Alice in Wonderland

... comes to Clay Camp

Jaberwocky masks, tea set, white rabbit—maybe the red queen and much more. Fun, fun.

Taught by Beth Rogers

July 5-9, 12-16, 19-23, 26-30, August 2-6 and 9-13
9:30 to Noon, Ages 7-12 • Tuition $130

TEENAGE CLAY MAKERS

Teenage Throwing

Taught by Pam Sabel, Lauren Street and Susan Ward

Fun on the wheel. Beginners learn to make mugs, pitchers, bowls and all things round. Intermediates must know how to center and then the sky is the limit...Big bowls, round, oval and maybe a tea pot.

July 19-23 Beginning Throwing - 1:30 to 4pm

July 29 - Glaze Day - 9:30am

July 26-30 Intermediate Throwing - 1:30 to 4pm

August 5 - Glaze Day - 9:30am

Aug 2-6 Beginning Throwing - 1:30 to 4pm

August 12 - Glaze Day - 9:30am

Open to middle school and older • Tuition $150

REGISTRATION

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Age (if under 18) _____

Class(es) you wish to attend _____

Please enclose a $50 deposit check for each class made payable to Boulder Mountain Clayworks.

The classes are limited in size. Sign up early! We will refund your deposit if the classes fail to fill. We will keep your deposit if you cancel within 10 days of the class. Inquire about credit from CSI.

Boulder Mountain Clayworks is a Non-Profit Organization for the Arts

phone 208.726.4484
email bouldermtncay@yahoo.com
web www.bouldermtncay.com

Detach and mail to Boulder Mountain Clayworks, P.O. Box 3725, Ketchum, ID 83340

Mission Statement

To encourage artistic growth and development in the community by:

- Offering instruction in clay and other media to adults and children,
- Providing a creative atmosphere where clay artists can develop their vision, and
- Scheduling events that are free and open to the public where the community can better appreciate the clay arts.